

Branson Christmas Treat

4 Days: November 1- 4, 2012

This travel package planned and escorted by Joe Ryan.

VARIETY is the word for this trip's line-up. We'll include the lavish show by long-time favorite, violin player Shoji Tabuchi. In sharp contrast meet Roy Rogers' son Dusty during a mellow, sentimental afternoon show. Along the way, we should also see some fabulous late autumn color. As time and weather permit, we'll tour Branson's Christmas light displays.

November 1 enjoy the fall foliage as we travel south picking up passengers on our way to Branson. Relax in the comfort of our extra legroom motorcoach. Our accommodations in Branson for the next 3 nights feature all non-smoking rooms, inside corridors, elevator, indoor pool & hot tub and free Wi-Fi. We have stayed in this hotel for many years and our previous travelers have given it high ratings.

November 2 enjoy a leisurely breakfast before we depart for our first show, the Brett Family Christmas Show. The Brett Family will share their love of the Christmas season by singing a variety of holiday favorites. A unique Christmas veterans tribute marries deep patriotism, love and the true meaning of Christmas. (A portion of the show will feature non-seasonal musical favorites from the regular season show.)

Lunch today is at the Midtown Café which is located in our theatre complex. This afternoon we'll attend the Daniel O'Donnell Holiday Show, with special guest Mary Duff. Many of you have seen "Danny" on public television or in concert. Danny will perform some songs of Ireland, along with favorite American tunes - from early rock 'n' roll to country hits, from gospel to pop, all with an Irish twist. Danny also entertains the audience with his smooth dancing style. This evening you will have the opportunity to choose: attend one of several different shows or spend some time shopping – it's all up to you!

November 3 following breakfast we will depart our hotel to see the Shoji Tabuchi Christmas Show. Shoji has been performing in Branson for many years and sets the standard for lavish productions, with a large and talented cast, many hi-tech surprises, elaborate stage sets and colorful costumes. Following the show we will travel a short distance to McFarlain's Family Restaurant for our noon lunch. You will have several lunch entrées to choose from, plus a piece of pie. Our afternoon show will be the Roy Rogers Jr. Christmas Show located in the RFD-TV Theatre. We will be entertained by Roy Rogers' son Dusty and Dusty's son (Roy Rogers' grandson) Dustin Roy, backed by their band, the High Riders. The show features classic western music during the first half and "cowboy style" Christmas tunes in the second half. Dusty will share what it was like growing up in such a famous family with Dale and Roy.

Next we go back in time 100 years as we tour the Titanic at the Titanic Museum. The Titanic sank 100 years ago and has provided us with many theories on the fatal iceberg crash. Our final show in Branson will feature the Haygoods Christmas Show with a talented family of 8 who entertain and electrify audiences with their music, a cappella harmonies, incredible dance, acrobatics and seasonal cheer. Each member is proficient on a multitude of instruments: fiddle, saxophone, guitar, drums, piano, harp and more. The Haygoods have been performing in Branson since they were very young and have a high-energy show.

November 4 after breakfast we'll be on our way home. We will make a cheese stop at Osceola, MO, and have our noon lunch in the Kansas City area. Arrive home with fond memories of our magical Christmas music treat.
